Borough Will Order Repairs to Pavements

Sidewalk Survey First Since 1931; Building Requirements to be Tightened

SPEED SIGNS APPROVED

For the first time since 1931, Narberth Council's Highway Committee will make an inspection of sidewalks and curbs in the borough, and send repair orders to those property owners wherever repairs are deemed necessary.

This action, recommended by Highway Committee Chairman, Robert F. Wood, was approved by Council at its April meeting in Elm Hall.

Also approved was a resolution prepared by Building Committee Chairman Harvey J. Harman, the purpose of which is to secure a closer co-operation among the Building Committee, Building Inspector and the Board of Adjustment both with regard to the issuance of permits for buildings and the holding of public hearings in connection with building and zoning ordinances.

Borough Solicitor Henry A. Frye was authorized to draw up amendments to the building and zoning ordinances giving the building committee more power and requiring the holding of public hearings on all appeals for exceptions.

Both of these movements are due, Mr. Wood explained, to an expected building expansion in Narberth which will necessitate a tightening up on highway and building policies if the borough's standards are to be maintained.

Highway committee members "have received indications that the State Highway Department has approved the application . . . for work to be done on . . . Essex avenue and . . . Conway avenue between Price and Sabine avenues."

It was reported also that discussion had been made of the desirability of applying for PWA funds for rebuilding or relocating the Narberth avenue bridge.

Erection of "20 miles per hour" signs every 660 feet was ordered for Haverford avenue from Montgomery to Wynnewood avenues, and on Narberth avenue from Montgomery to Rockland avenues. It was recommended by William H. Durbin, chairman of the Public Safety Committee.

Eugene H. Davis, chairman of the Water, Light and Health Committee, reported that no rabid dogs have been found in Narberth. Eleven dogs have been seized; five reclaimed. The Board of Health has adopted a resolution authorizing its agents to seize dogs running at large on their owners' properties.

During March, the building report showed, Building Inspector George B. Suplee made nineteen inspections and issued these five permits:

Charles Becker, 212 Forest avenue, alterations, $350 cost.

Mrs. Francis Baker, 115 Windsor avenue, roof, $80 cost.

Presbyterian Board of Petitions, 531 Dudley avenue, garage, $500 cost.

R. S. Adams, 248 Dudley avenue, roof, $150 cost.

Miss Mary E. Sharp, 32 Narbrook Park, wood shed, $160 cost.

Merion Civic Association Discusses New Bridge Plan

Directors of the Merion Civic Association on Monday discussed a plan to reconstruct the Rockland road bridge, with Clarence E. Hall, president, presiding.

While a new structure would cost about $100,000, the chief expense involved in the new plan would be the addition of sidewalks to the bridge and widening of the approaches. The cost would be borne by Lower Merion Township, Borough of Narberth and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

As the result of joint meeting between members of the Merion Civic Association and Pennsylvania Railroad officials last Friday, the railroad company will reconsider replacement of the safety fence between the tracks at the Merion station. Removal of the fence, Merionites held, created a danger hazard for children who dash across the tracks to catch the school bus rather than use the underground tunnel.

Members of the Narberth Fire Company this Thursday evening are guests of the Mulieres at the annual banquet in Elm Hall. The time, 6.30.

Valley Forge Stands O. K. Park Head Tells Rotarians

The other side of the "hot-dog" stand controversy at Valley Forge Park was presented Tuesday at the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club meeting by Gilbert S. Jones, park superintendent.

The proposed two attractive refreshment stands, Mr. Jones held, would bring in revenue to the park which is now going to other sources and would not be unsightly.

A. F. W. Vick was chairman. Next week's speaker will be Harvey J. Harman, Penn coach and Narberth councilman, who will give an illustrated talk on national parks. William H. Durbin will have charge of the meeting.

G. O. P. Women Hear of Campaign Issues

Council Told About Social Security Bill, Political Merit System

OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN

The Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women elected the following officers at the annual business meeting and luncheon held at Whitehall, Haverford, on Tuesday afternoon: Honorary president, Mrs. H. Tatnall Brown, Jr.; president, Mrs. John Y. Huber, Jr.; first vice-president, Mrs. W. Russell Green; second vice-president, Mrs. Carl H. Zipf; third vice-president, Mrs. E. H. Cockrill; fourth vice-president, Mrs. Joseph C. Ferguson, 3d; treasurer, Mrs. Morris M. Green; recording secretary, Mrs. J. F. Scull, and corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. G. Greenwood. The Nominating Committee was Mrs. Richard S. McGowan, chairman; Mrs. Robert M. Bird, Mrs. William C. Byers, Mrs. H. Wilson Moorehouse and Mrs. Joseph P. White.

Mrs. Willis Spivey, of the Pennsylvania League of Women Voters, gave a comprehensive talk on the Social Security Bill. She advocated that the worker who was replaced by machinery be given a vocational re-education.

Mrs. Samuel Scott, of the State Council of Republican Women, spoke on the "Merit System in Politics," stating that all candidates for political jobs should be chosen for their merits rather than for the work they had done for some particular candidate.

She also decried the party assessment of the Federal and State employees who were released from their work to carry on in the political campaigns. She does not believe that Republican taxpayers should pay for a Democratic campaign.

Mrs. John Y. Huber, the president, gave a short outline on the party issues for the coming campaign.

Guests at the luncheon were Lambert Cadwalader and Mrs. Edwin C. Town, both candidates for the Republican nomination for Assemblyman from the First District.

The next meeting will be May 12, a trip to Sleighton Farms, with Mrs. Joseph Ferguson, 3d, in charge.

A card party will be given at the Deanery in Bryn Mawr on May 19 and is in charge of Mrs. Walter B. Suplee.

Suplee, of Bala-Cynwyd; Mrs. Goodwyn M. Davis, of Bryn Mawr; Mrs. Stephen E. Slocum, of Ardmore, and Mrs. C. Arley Farmer and Mrs. Joseph A. Hongler, of the Women's Community Club of Narberth.

The soloist will be Mrs. C. Frederick Kuebler, Jr., of Narberth, and the hostess, Mrs. S. C. Campbell.

The Literature Group met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joseph H. Miller, on Haverford avenue, Mrs. Joseph A. Hongler was the co-hostess.

Operetta Tonight

On this Friday evening at 7.30 the Junior Choir of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church will present the beautiful Japanese Operetta, "O Cho San." Amidst the cherry blossoms the appealing drama works itself out. There is a note of sadness, however, when O Cho San breaks her sandal strap. But all turns out well and everybody is happy in the finale as the cherry blossoms are strewn before the heroine.

A silver offering will be lifted and the public is invited.

Narberth Players' Fun Fest Amuses 200

Two Plays Well Received at Meeting Held Tuesday

"GOODBYE AGAIN" NEXT

More than 200 guests and members attended the gala meeting of the Narberth Players held in the auditorium of the Narberth school Tuesday evening, when Bill Muller presented two outstanding plays, "The Pride of the Claighornes," by George Kauffman and Howard Dietz, and "The Undercurrent," by Fay Ehlert, a tense and dramatic story of the tyranny of a German father in the management of his family.

"The Pride of the Claighornes," a riotous comedy that burlesqued life in the Old South, had for cast Bob Estes as Colonel Claighorne, who was outstanding in his performance; Mrs. Claighorne, Alice Greenwood; their daughter, Breeze, Peggy Bailey; Mr. Ely, Roy Greenwood; Simpson, his son, Paul Goodyear; Martin, Joe Hongler, and Jasper, the 108-year-old butler, played by 16-year-old Paul Brown.

In the cast of "The Undercurrent" were Bill Muller as Paul Fischer, the father; Faith Farmer as Ma Fischer, his wife; Ruth Rollins as Annie, daughter of the Fischers; Bill Farmer as Emil, the son, and Peggy Bailey as Mrs. Floyd, a neighbor. This play was given an ovation as a most convincing performance by every member of the cast.

Between the two plays there was an exceptionally clever tap-dance number by Ruth Werner and Lew Clawges. Mr. Muller did a clever job of coaching on both plays and was assisted by Ann Darville, who was in charge of the stage and property effects.

The large audience was served with refreshments by Mrs. Lloyd B. Edgerton and her committee.

"Goodbye Again," next major production of the Narberth Players, originally scheduled for April 24 and 25, is in rehearsal and it is hoped that the original dates will be changed to May 1 and May 2, depending on what arrangements may be made with the school authorities.

Annual business meeting of the Players will be held May 19 at the Narberth school.

Salutatorian, Nelson Bucher, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bucher, North Narberth avenue, Narberth, member of Student Council, Dramatic Club, Merionite, Year Book Staff and Senior Play.

Averaging 90 per cent or above for their course are Archie Sparks, William Humes, Bernard Siman and Betty Scott.

Refer Relief Solicitors to Mrs. Mueller, Advertising to Mrs. Gill

TO AVOID DUPLICATION

Three steps to increase the co-operation of Narberth business people, for the sake of themselves and their customers, were taken at the April Narberth Business Council meeting in the Arcadia Restaurant Monday night.

A resolution was passed serving notice to all donation-seeking organizations, that all solicitors for donations to charity, either by the public through local stores or by the business people directly, should first have the approval of Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller. Mrs. Mueller, it was pointed out, is the borough burgess' regular appointee as Narberth Volunteer Emergency Relief Committee chairman and is the Business Council's regularly designated relief chairman.

Printed notices will be kept handy by the merchants to refer solicitors in the future to Mrs. Mueller, so that the community's charity work may be more closely knit in the future. The action was taken as a result of recent misunderstandings about the status of Mrs. Mueller, who for years has taken charge of relief work in the borough and shown her complete mastery and sympathetic understanding of the problems of all deserving needy families. It is the council's belief this concentration of activities through Mrs. Mueller should save needless trouble and duplication, such as took place after the recent flood, when volunteers staged an impromptu canvass here for the Red Cross, collecting large quantities of clothing after the regular relief authorities had been asked to discontinue shipments of clothing, which they were told was not needed in the flood regions.

Other action taken at the meeting: Mrs. Suzanne Joret Gil was made chairman of a committee to pass on the merits of advertising appeals by schools, horse shows, churches and other institutions, which sometimes swamp the business people. Solicitors will be referred to her, and merchants who are members of the Business Council will be supplied with reference cards to emphasize the fact that they rely on Mrs. Gill's judgment in the matter of advertising. She will when necessary refer these appeals to the Business Council as a body or to its executive board.

Gordon Wunder was appointed to see Burgess J. R. Hall with a view to regulating establishment of new businesses in the borough. The intention is to avoid in the future some of the extraordinary competition that now exists in some lines of business.

THE POLITICAL POT

chairman of the dinner committee.

Everyone running for the Republican Nomination for State Senator from Delaware County has been called a "stooge" by some other candidate, with the exception of Senator John J. McClure, who seeks re-nomination.

Charging that all but two of seven candidates opposing Senator John J. McClure, candidate for Republican re-nomination in Delaware County, are "plants," Thomas F. Long, of Ardmore, one of the entries, warned that unless there is a concentration of the anti-McClure voters the Senator will win at the primaries without much difficulty.

Addressing the Independent Republican Voters' forum at Haverford, Long listed himself and William Hammond, of Chester, as the only candidates not placed in the field by forces friendly to the McClure organization.

Meanwhile the Peoples' Association of Delaware County announced it had endorsed Weldon B. Heyburn, of Concord, who proclaims to be the only real anti-McClure candidate in the race.

J. S. G. Dunne, Highway Head Fifty-One Years, Dies Suddenly

John Sloan Graham Dunne, from 1885 until his death last week, superintendent of highways in Lower Merion Township, was buried on Tuesday in the family burial plot at Cape Charles, Va.

Mr. Dunne, who was 79, died suddenly of heart disease last Friday following a day's inspection of the highways he had helped to build during the last half century.

He took charge of roads here while Lower Merion was still a fourth class township with a population of 8,000 and about 15 miles of highway. He saw it develop to a first-class township of 40,000 residents and 120 miles of roads.

From 1885 to 1900 he was also in charge of the Old Lancaster Turnpike Company which operated a toll road on what is now Old Lancaster road, Cynwyd, Montgomery avenue and Old Lancaster road, Bryn Mawr.

Mr. Dunne is survived by three daughters, Verner Graham Dunne and Nannie Nottingham Dunne, of Bryn Mawr, and Mrs. Bradford Smith, Jr., of St. Davids, and by one granddaughter, Louisa Nottingham Smith.

"Modern Times" and "Milky Way"—Narberth

Hilarious comedy and clever satire make outstanding entertainment of "Modern Times," in which Charlie Chaplin shows his old-time flair for pantomime and Paulette Goddard, his new leading lady, gives an excellent characterization. It's at the Narberth Theatre now, along with the Silly Symphony, "Broken Toys."

Added for Saturday's 1 P. M. matinee are the Columbia Happy Hour and "The Fighting Sheriff," starring Buck Jones.

Harold Lloyd is screamingly funny as a milkman who wins the middle-weight boxing championship by ducking, clowning and dancing—in "The Milky Way," the Clarence Buddington Kelland story, coming Monday and Tuesday. Adolphe Menjou is his fast-thinking manager.

Rosalind Russell comes Wednesday and Thursday next in "It Had to Happen," swift-moving, forceful story of the meteoric rise of an honest young Italian immigrant (George Raft) to a position of political power. Leo Carrillo lends excellent support.

The end of next week, "Anything Goes"—at Narberth—with Bing Crosby, Ethel Merman and Charlie Ruggles.

"Bohemian Girl" is at Egyptian, With "On Ice": Detective Stories Coming

"The Bohemian Girl," now playing at the Egyptian, is highly amusing entertainment—starring Laurel and Hardy, aided by Mae Busch, Antonio Moreno and Jacqueline Wells. Balfe's melodies lend charm to the production, but its chief bid for family enjoyment is the cleverly original comedy scenes by Laurel and Hardy, who are at their best. Also on the program is Walt Disney's Mickey Mouse comedy, "On Ice." And at the 2.15 matinee "Rex and Rinty," exciting new serial, will start.

Jane Withers stars in "Paddy O'Day," delightful comedy offered this Saturday at the 10.30 Junior Cinema Alliance matinee.

Van Dine's "The Garden Murder Case" will play in Cynwyd Monday and Tuesday, with Edmund Lowe as

DOWN---NOT OUT

In 1928 we suggested and recommended that peo-ple take advantage of the recreational facilities in their basements. We also predicted that more and more people would remodel and decorate this un-used space, making it a real Club Room. If you have not experienced the thrill, comfort and con-venience of this type room, you've missed a treat. You can bring in your Bridge Club, the Kings and Queens, serve the refreshments here and keep the rest of your house in order. You will then want to go "down," but you'll lose your desire to go "out."

Let us help you get an original arrangement for your basement.

Girl Scout News

Main Line District 8 will hold its annual Scouts' Own on April 26 at 7.30 P. M. (Daylight-Saving Time) on the Longstreth estate in Haverford.

The Pioneer Club, with a membership of sixty-two girls, drawn from the entire Philadelphia area, has issued invitations to all 14-year-olds (or older) in said area who are second-class scouts and have had at least two years' previous camping experience, to meet the members of the Pioneer Club at the home of Mrs. P. D. Folwell, 227 North Bowman avenue, Merion, at 7.30 P. M. this Saturday. New folk songs and new games have been planned by the program chairman. There will be a campfire with the latest scouting songs and stories. The new Pioneer Unit leader for Indian Run Girl Scout Camp, Miss Harriett Dickinson, will be introduced. Miss Dickinson comes to Philadelphia from Camp May Flather in Western Virginia.

The Nature Course for District 8 will begin at 9.30 A. M. on Monday, April 20, and will continue for four consecutive Mondays for two hours each session. The meeting place is the Girl Scout headquarters in the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church.

All Girl Scout leaders and troop committees are cordially invited to join the district committees and council for tea at the annual meeting Wednesday, April 22, at 4 P. M. at Girl Scout Headquarters, 311 South Juniper street, Philadelphia.

Miss Florence Waltz, Philadelphia day camp director, will be at head-quarters, 311 South Juniper street, every Monday from 1 to 5 P. M. to answer any questions regarding day camp problems.

Miss Helen Melvin, field director for Main Line District 8, has been recog-nized by the National Girl Scout editor as showing signal talent in the writing of "The Girl of Today and the Woman of Tomorrow," a series of tableaux which was given at the Court of Awards of Troop 93, Ardmore, on the occasion of "Bunny" Cornman's Golden Eaglet Award.

News of Troop 8

The Tenderfoot group of Troop 8 had its first hiking experience when the older members took the girls for a picnic at the old mill last Tuesday afternoon. They followed signs they had already learned, and at the mill they had a lesson in the technique of fire building. Cattie taught them the proper way to vault a fence and jump a creek. After a delightful meal and some games and songs the troop re-turned to the scout house for a Court of Honor.

The leaders laid plans for the Court of Awards which will be held May 12. There will be a rehearsal of the Scouts' Own program at Bryn Mawr today at 4.30. Next week the troop will work on a very interesting handicraft project.

It costs only 4 cents a week to keep posted on your community's news.
